

Editorial

Most esteemed Mr. President of the Mineira Academy of Medicine -Brazil,

Professor José Raimundo da Silva Lippi

Allow me to thank you for your kindness in reading and particularly appreciating the «Treaty of Clinical Sexology», which book you have requested and which I have given you with special consideration.

I am extremely flattered by your appreciation and that of the collective of academics about my works, as you considered the «Treaty of Clinical Sexology» to be «excellent and the largest and most important treaty on sexology in the world», your laudatory words being a great honor to me.

I am very grateful for the consideration of the Members of the Mineira Academy of Medicine showed me and I respectfully address many thanks the members who voted me unanimously, among them being the Academic Professor Dr. Andy Petroianu, one of the surgeons who performed the first ovarian transplants in the world and that you consider «a brilliant Brazilian surgeon».

Also, I am extremely honored that you decided to have my name and my photograph recorded in the Annals of the Mineira Academy of Medicine -Brazil, as a corresponding member of the Academy.

With deep respect and consideration,
Professor Dr. Vasile Nițescu

